F.No. 373/164/B/14-RA/1267

Date of Issue 07.03.2018

ORDER NO. 90/2018-CUS (SZ) / ASRA / MUMBAI/ DATED 06.03.2018 OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA PASSED BY SHRI ASHOK KUMAR MEHTA , PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER & EX-OFFICIO ADDITIONAL SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, UNDER SECTION 129DD OF THE CUSTOMS ACT, 1962.

Applicant : Smt. Samsun Fareeda

Respondent : Commissioner of Customs, Chennai.

Subject : Revision Application filed, under Section 129DD of the Customs Act, 1962 against the Order-in-Appeal No. C. Cus No. 271/2014 dated 20.02.2014 passed by the Commissioner of Customs (Appeals), Chennai.

ORDER

This revision application has been filed by Smt. Samsun Fareeda (herein referred to as Applicant) against the order C. Cus. No. 271/2014 dated 20.02.2014 passed by the Commissioner of Customs (Appeals), Chennai.

2. Briefly stated the facts of the case are that the applicant, a Sri Lankan citizen arrived at the Chennai Airport on 12.09.2013. Examination of her baggage and person resulted in the recovery of a three gold bangles totally weighing 64.9 gms totally valued at Rs. 1,99,153/-. After due process of the law vide Order-In-Original No. 1086/2013 Batch B dated 12.09.2013 the Original Adjudicating Authority ordered confiscation of the impugned goods under Section 111 (d), (l), (m) and (o) of the Customs Act read with Section 3 (3) of Foreign Trade (Development & Regulation) Act. The Original Adjudicating Authority allowed re-export of the gold bangles on payment of a fine of Rs. 60,000/- and also imposed penalty of Rs. 20,000/- under Section 112 (a) of the Customs Act, 1962. Aggrieved by the said order, the applicant filed an appeal before the Commissioner (Appeals) who vide Order-In-Appeal No. C.Cus No. 271/2014 dated 20.02.2014 rejected the appeal of the applicant.

4. The applicant has filed this Revision Application interalia on the following grounds that;

4.1. The order of the appellate authority is bad in law, weight of evidence and probabilities of the case.

4.2. Both the Respondents failed to see that a true declaration was made by the Applicant and nothing was concealed or misdeclared.

4.3 The value of the gold bangles adopted is on the higher side.

4.4 Both the Respondents failed to see that the Applicant had opted for the Red Channel proving her bonafides that she has got dutiable goods. However the officers have totally ignored this and registered a case against the Applicant.

4.5 Both the Respondents have ignored orders of the High Court and Government Of India in similar matters.

The Revision Applicant prays that the Hon'ble Revision Authority may be pleased to set aside both the lower authorities orders and set aside fine of Rs. 60,000/- and penalty of Rs. 20,000/- , and order for re-export of the gold bangles and thereby render justice.

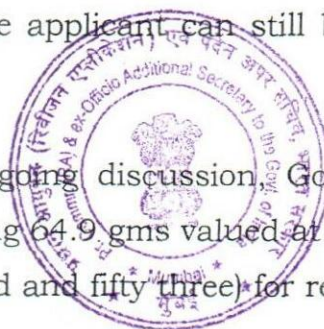

The Revision Applicant prays that the Hon'ble Revision Authority may be pleased to set aside both the lower authorities order and pass such other consequential orders and thereby render justice.

5. A personal hearing in the case was scheduled to be held on 14.02.2018, the Advocate for the respondent Shri K. Mohammed Ismail in his letter dated 12.02.2018 informed that his clients are unable to send their counsel all the way to Mumbai from Chennai and requested that the personal hearing may be waived and the grounds of the Revision Application may be taken as arguments for this Revision, and decide the case as per relief sought for in the prayer of the Revision and oblige. Nobody from the department attended the personal hearing.

6. The Government has gone through the facts of the case. The Applicant is a foreign national. However every tourist has to comply with the laws prevailing in the country visited. If a tourist is caught circumventing the law, he must face the consequences. The Applicant is a frequent traveller and a written declaration of gold was not made by the Applicant as required under Section 77 of the Customs Act, 1962 and had she not been intercepted she would have gone without paying the requisite duty, under the circumstances confiscation of the gold is justified.

7. However, the facts of the case state that the Applicant was not intercepted while trying to exit the Green Channel. Being a frequent traveller, this is the first offence of the Applicant. There was no concealment of the goods, and neither was there a concerted attempt at smuggling these goods into India. The CBEC Circular 09/2001 gives specific directions to the Customs officer in case the declaration form is incomplete/not filled up, the proper Customs officer should help the passenger record to the oral declaration on the Disembarkation Card and only thereafter should countersign/stamp the same, after taking the passenger's signature. Thus, mere non-submission of the declaration cannot be held against the Applicant more so because she is a foreigner. Under the circumstances Government, holds that while imposing redemption fine and penalty the applicant can still be treated with a lenient view.

7. Taking into consideration the foregoing discussion, Government allows redemption of the confiscated gold weighing 64.9 gms valued at Rs., 1,99,153/- (One lac ninety nine thousand one hundred and fifty three) for re-export in lieu of fine. Government, reduces the redemption fine imposed by the Appellate authority from Rs. 60,000/- (Sixty thousand) to Rs 30,000/- (Rupees Thirty thousand). Government also observes that the facts of the case justify slight reduction in the penalty imposed. The penalty imposed on the Applicant is therefore reduced from Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees Twenty thousand) to Rs 10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand) under section 112(a) of the Customs Act,1962.

8. The impugned Order in Appeal stands modified to that extent.
9. Revision application is partly allowed on above terms.
10. So, ordered.

F.No. 373/353/B/14-RA | 1301

Date of Issue 14.03.2018

ORDER NO. 91 /2018-CUS (SZ) / ASRA / MUMBAI/ DATED 13.03.2018 OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA PASSED BY SHRI ASHOK KUMAR MEHTA , PRINCIPAL COMMISSIONER & EX-OFFICIO ADDITIONAL SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, UNDER SECTION 129DD OF THE CUSTOMS ACT, 1962.

Applicant : Shri Azeem Rahman

Respondent : Commissioner of Customs (Airport), Chennai.

Subject : Revision Application filed, under Section 129DD of the Customs Act, 1962 against the Order-in-Appeal C.Cus No. 1695/2014 dated 12.09.2014 passed by the Commissioner of Customs (Appeals) Chennai.

ORDER

This revision application has been filed by Shri Azeem Rahman against the order no C.Cus No. 1695/2014 dated 12.09.2014 passed by the Commissioner of Customs (Appeals), Chennai.

2. Briefly stated facts of the case are that the applicant, an Indian citizen had arrived at the Chennai International Airport on 09.05.2014. Examination of his baggage and person resulted in recovery of 2 pioneer car stereo system, one Sony LED 55" TV and one gold chain weighing 105 gms valued at 2,69,626/-. The two car stereos and the Sony LED 55" TV were released on applicable payment of duty after allowing duty free allowance of Rs. 15,000/-. As the Applicant had not declared the impugned gold the original Adjudicating Authority vide his order 619/2014 Batch A dated 09.05.2014 absolutely confiscated the gold chain referred to above under section 111(d), 111(l), 111(m) and 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 read with section 3(3) of the Foreign trade (D &R) Act, 1992. A Penalty of Rs. 27,000/- under Section 112 (a) of the Customs Act, 1962 was also imposed on the Applicant.

3. Aggrieved by this order the Applicant filed an appeal with the Commissioner of Customs (Appeals) Chennai. The Commissioner of Customs (Appeals) Chennai, vide his Order in Appeal C.Cus No. 1695/2014 dated 12.09.2014 rejected the Appeal.

4. The applicant has filed this Revision Application inter alia on the following grounds that; the order of the Commissioner (Appeals) is against law, weight of evidence and circumstances and probabilities of the case; that the Applicant had worn the gold chain, he had declared the gold chain orally; there are no specific allegations that he had crossed the green channel; the gold jewelry was worn by the Applicant and it is his personal belongings and was not for commercial trade and as the jewelry was worn by the Applicant, the same was visible and he showed it to the officer therefore the question of declaration does not arise, the facts can also be ascertained through the CCTV video record; The gold is personal belongings and not brought for commercial sale; that section 111 d, l, m and o are not attracted in the case; CBEC circular 9/2001 gives specific directions stating that a declaration should not be left blank, if not filled in the Officer should help the passenger to fill in the declaration card; The Hon'ble Supreme Court has in the case of Om Prakash vs Union of India states that the main object of the Customs Authority is to collect the duty and not to punish the person for infringement of its provisions; the worn gold jewelry should have been allowed for re-export without redemption fine and penalty. But the officers proceeded to detain the jewelry because it was not declared; the gold was not concealed in an ingenious manner, the authorities should have allowed re-export by imposing lesser fine and penalty..

The Revision Applicant cited various assorted judgments and boards policies in support of re-export in support of his case and prayed for permission to re-export the gold on payment of nominal redemption fine and reduced personal penalty.

5. A personal hearing in the case was held on 07.03.2018, the Advocate for the respondent Shri Palanikumar attended the hearing he re-iterated the submissions filed in Revision Application and cited the decisions of GOI/Tribunals where option for re-export of gold was allowed. Nobody from the department attended the personal hearing.

6. The Government has gone through the facts of the case. The Applicant is a frequent traveller and well aware of the rules. A written declaration of gold was not made by the Applicant as required under Section 77 of the Customs Act, 1962 and had he not been intercepted he would have gone without paying the requisite duty, under the circumstances confiscation of the gold is justified.

7. However, the facts of the case state that the Applicant was intercepted before he exited the Green Channel. The gold was worn by the Applicant, hence, there was no concealment of the goods. Even though the Applicant is a frequent traveller there are no previous offences registered against him. The CBEC Circular 09/2001 gives specific directions to the Customs officer in case the declaration form is incomplete/not filled up, the proper Customs officer should help the passenger record to the oral declaration on the Disembarkation Card and only thereafter should countersign/stamp the same, after taking the passenger's signature. Thus, mere non-submission of the declaration cannot be held against the Applicant. There are a catena of judgments which align with the view that the discretionary powers vested with the lower authorities under section 125(1) of the Customs Act, 1962 have to be exercised. The absolute confiscation of the gold is therefore harsh and unjustified. In view of the above facts, the Government is of the opinion that a lenient view can be taken in the matter. The order of absolute confiscation of the gold jewelry in the impugned Order in Appeal therefore needs to be modified and the confiscated gold jewelry is liable to be allowed for re-export on payment of redemption fine and penalty.

8. Taking into consideration the foregoing discussion, Government allows redemption of the confiscated gold lump for re-export in lieu of fine. The confiscated gold jewelry is allowed for re-export in lieu of fine. The gold jewelry weighing 105 gms valued at Rs. 2,69,626/- (Two lacs sixty nine thousand Six hundred and twenty six) is ordered to be redeemed for re-export on payment of redemption fine of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One lac) under section 125 of the Customs Act, 1962. Government also observes that the facts of the case justify slight reduction in the penalty imposed. The penalty imposed on the Applicant is therefore reduced from Rs. 27,000/- (Rupees Twenty seven thousand) to Rs. 25,000/- (Rupee Twenty five thousand) under section 112(a) of the Customs Act,1962.

9. The impugned Order in Appeal stands modified to that extent. Revision application is partly allowed on above terms.

10. So, ordered.
